

THE 2ND ANNUAL SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES GRADUATE CONFERENCE

VIVA LA REVOLUCION

EMERGING MOVEMENTS, MOBILIZATION, AND PROGRESSIVE SOCIAL CHANGE
UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, SAINT JOHN, NB MAY 11-MAY 12, 2012

SPONSORED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK IN SAINT JOHN, THE 2ND ANNUAL SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES GRADUATE CONFERENCE IS NOW ACCEPTING EARLY REGISTRATION AND PROPOSAL INQUIRIES FROM GRADUATE STUDENTS FROM ALL DISCIPLINES WITHIN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES. E-MAIL SSHSCW@GMAIL.COM TODAY.

We will be accepting papers that deal with a wide range of topics and approaches, but given our theme for this year's conference, we encourage proposals for papers on social movements, science and society, religion, empire, domestic or international politics, and education. You are invited to submit a 250 word abstract for a 15-20 minute paper and a CV to sshscw@gmail.com. In the body of your e-mail please include your name, contact information, institutional affiliation, and a brief biographical statement. The call for submissions will remain open until further notice. The UNB Saint John campus (UNBSJ) is located in Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada. Overlooking the Kennebecasis River, UNBSJ's 252-acre woodland campus plays host to a large international student body and prides itself on being a small campus with big achievements.
